FC Jr Update - Orientation session online

All:

We are two weeks from the registration deadline – please encourage your colleagues to join us in this STEM educational program. We still have room for more teams.

And, speaking of teams – we encourage you to find a volunteer engineer to mentor the teams. I have a list of suggestions on where to look for a mentor on the website. And, if all else fails, you can contact us – our mentor coordinator, Tom Hunt – for help.

WEBINARS:

Finally, I have just finished recording an orientation video for the FC Junior program. You can find it online on our Future City NTX YouTube channel:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCacW1hQSPrW-wSotEbDlasQ>. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Also, there is a webinar recording of the essay overview online at <http://futurecity.org/resource/power-public-space-webinar>.

ESSAY DEADLINE:

Lastly, the essay is due on 2 December. You can submit it late with a few points deducted. See the schedule at www.dfwfuturecity.org/team\_junior.html for details.
